

DESCENDANT OF RHAKAN DE LORENZA

(LASOMBRA ONLY)

Rhakan came to Indianapolis a broken yet determined kindred. The last surviving member of a Sabbat pack destroyed in the assault on New York, he had sworn vengeance on those responsible. After infiltrating the city, he learned that it was not just Camarilla forces that were at fault, but his pack was betrayed from within the Sabbat itself. Disavowing the Sword of Caine, he eventually was allowed to join the Camarilla as a probationary member and then awarded Loyal status by a visiting Justicar.

He was renowned for an occult bookstore he kept in the southeast corner of central Indianapolis and delved deeply into lore, study, and searches for magical paraphernalia to assist in his study of the abyss. Close allies with the Nosferatu and Brujah, the territory was a haven of biker gangs and rumored to have access to the warrens as well.
